

Winter 2017

Greetings from the Sterett Association

No matter where you live, this winter has been a strange one. Spring like one day, snow, ice and freezing temperatures the next.

Whatever your winter weather has been, we hope the season finds you and your loved ones in good health.

This newsletter contains a few items we hope will be of interest to our Sterett family.

DDG 104

DDG 104 continues her workups in the San Diego area.

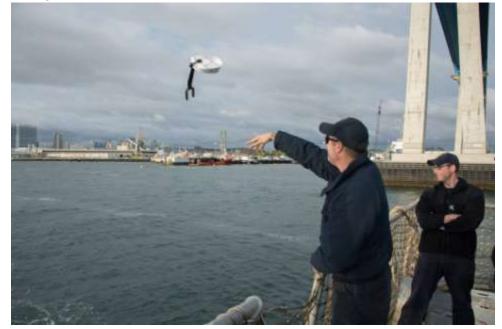

USS Sterett (DDG-104) leads the way on a show of force transit training exercise with USS Dewey (DDG-105), USS Wayne E. Meyer (DDG-108), USS Carl Vinson (CVN-70) and USS O'Kane (DDG-77) on Nov. 4, 2016.

As these pictures reveal, regardless of the latest technologies, some shipboard evolutions haven't changed over the years.

Today's sailors still hang onto some time honored traditions:

Angel of the Pacific

I received the following email on November 30:

I hope your day goes well. Sir, the reason for this email is to find some of my Angel from the Pacific who had rescued my family and I back in 1982. I was one of the lucky Honorary that got rescued by the brave men of the USS Sterett 31 back in 1982 in Gulf of Thailand. I have been trying to get in touch with anyone still living just to say Thank You. My family and I were on a small boat which was rescued by you and your captain. There were 15 people (children and adults) on board. We stayed on the USS Sterett for 7 days before departed to the Honorary camp. I know my cousins in the past had made a trip for the reunion of the USS

Sterett in Washington (Traci Phan and Keri Nguyen). Sir, if you don't mind, can you please guide me to those brave men or the Captain so I can say Thank You. I finished up my autobiography about my journey to America. The title will be: Leaving My Homeland-A story of struggle, triumph, and faith. Thank you. Cuong Vince Nguyen

In the days and weeks that followed, Vince and I exchanged several messages. His story continues:

My late Father is the Captain of that boat. He is the one in the back with a cap on wearing blue shirt trying to steer the boat with the paddle. I was 8 years old boy sitting at the front of the boat with one of my uncles. My family has 5 children (4 girls, 1 boy) on the boat. My youngest brother was conceived in Thailand Honorary camp. I remembered everything during the escape, how many times we were attacked by pirates (Thailand fishermen) and how we lost our way. My late Father was the 4th generation fisherman who built the 2 boats used in the escape. One boat guided by my other late uncle made smooth sale into Malaysia with no attacks. Unfortunately, our boat was not so lucky. We were attack 6 times. After the second time, they took our engine thinking we were hiding gold in it. But God has a plan because if it were not for the USS Sterett, we would have died that night. As I recalled, that night on the ship, there was a severe thunderstorm, maybe typhoon wind speed, that would have sunk our boat if we were not rescued that afternoon.

Vince still has pictures and other memorabilia from the Sterett including the honorary crew member ID given to his father and all rescued refugees by Captain George Sullivan.

Vince lives in Pensacola, FL.

Ironic as it may be, I was planning a Sterett related trip that would have me passing through Pensacola to Jacksonville on January 14.

I contacted Darryl Stewart (ICCS/CWO3) who lives in Pensacola and arranged to meet with Vince at a local restaurant.

We spent a very enjoyable time with Vince as he told us about his family and his life since coming to the USA. Among other things, Vince has been a Border Patrol officer and a member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary. It was very clear, Vince has a deep love for the USA and a deep appreciation for the USS Sterett.

The truth is the real heroes in this and other similar stories are the brave men, women and children who climbed aboard those small, overcrowded rickety boats and set out in search of a better life. The Sterett and her crew were the real lucky ones who happened upon them and helped them along their way.

Yours truly with Vince Nguyen and Darryl Stewart

We look forward to seeing Vince, his cousins Traci and Keri and some of our other honorary crewmembers at the reunion in June.

Mini Reunion Tune Up for June

As the above article mentioned, I made a trip to Jacksonville, FL in mid January.

Joe Gaughan had called for a mini Sterett reunion at Dave & Buster's. There are several Sterett veterans living in the Northeast Florida area who stopped by. We missed a couple who didn't make it but it was a nice gathering. Actually, any gathering of Sterett sailors is a no miss event. We were so busy catching up we forgot to take a lot of pictures. Those in attendance were Joe Gaughan, Glenn MacArthur, Thomas Ossman, Dave Mikulak, Brian Cox, Barry Vitez and Danny (Doc) Smith.

Sterett shipmates in your general area? Call a muster.

Navy Ratings

As a follow-up to the article in the previous newsletter:

December 20:

Navy leaders are reversing their controversial decision to eliminate sailors' ratings and will restore job titles across the fleet, according to a Navy message set for release Wednesday.

Effective immediately, enlisted sailors will officially regain their ratings, the traditional job titles that have inspired a deep cultural loyalty and that have defined enlisted career tracks for generations, Navy officials said.

The move comes three months after the Navy stunned sailors around the world in September by eliminated ratings titles, including those such as boatswain's mate that dated back to the founding of the service.

The extraordinarily rare move comes after a fierce backlash from the fleet that became a distraction from the Navy's broader effort to reform the antiquated personnel system, Navy officials said.

Adm. John Richardson, the chief of naval operations, called it a "course correction" and acknowledged the overwhelmingly negative reaction from the fleet was a key factor in the decision.

The Last Voyage of Andrew Sterett

Andrew Sterett, a rising hero of the early U.S. Navy resigned before his prime; for him, private-sector seafaring would prove far more perilous.

Sterett Passings

The following Sterett shipmates have crossed the bar:

CG 31 Edward V. Labanowski Jr. ET2 86-88

If notification of a member's passing is received in a timely manner, the Association will arrange for flowers and/or a Sterett representative at the services. However, we generally do not receive notice prior to the services.

Member's in Good Standing (MIGS)

There may still be confusion about the dues/reunion connection so here is an explanation.

A few years ago, the reunion fee for a guest was reduced from $80 to $60, while the member/shipmate fee remained at $80. The reunion fees are designed to cover the expenses of the reunion and not to make a profit. Past reunions showed we could reduce the quest fee and still make our expenses. This fee reduction was not related to Association dues.

Shortly thereafter, we decided to reinstate the policy of waiving dues for the calendar year following a reunion for those attending. However, in order for that to occur, one's dues must be up to date in the year of the reunion.

Examples:

- 1. If you are paid up through 2017 and attend the 2017 reunion, your dues for 2018 will be considered paid.
- 2. However, if you are paid up beyond 2018 and you attend the 2017 reunion, your dues for one more year will be added to your Dues Paid Year.

The following is the latest membership list as of 24 January. For members whose dues are only paid thru 2016 (those in red) and to give them a chance to renew, they will still be considered in good standing until 31 March 2017. However, if they have not renewed by that date, they will be removed from the list until such time as they renew.
